Directions 1981

Lumberton, North Carolina

Birth of a College

New Opportunities for

a New Decade

New Faces . . .

(Below) Students enjoy good food and hospitality of the snack bar's new atmosphere. (Below center) Decorative rose trellis enhances view of campus. (Right) Students take refreshing break during hectic first day.

During orientation student body attentively awaits instructions.

New Looks . . . New Spirits

Casual gathering provides chance to reminisce and ponder what lies ahead.

Joking and enthusiasm prevail in the Student Lounge during the lunch hour.

Old Friendships New Acquaintances

(Top) The Field Day crowd cheers as student gets a dunking in the pond. (Center left) Dixie Pait and Sandra Britt join forces in a three-legged race. (Center right) Phyllis Locklear takes a swing at the battered car for instructor, John Atkinson. (Left) Chow time, everyone.

Renewed Formed

(Top) A stroll to class provides conversation time for David Locklear and Jacqueline Mack. (Center) Jessie Sherrill chats with Tommy Locklear. (Right) Moments of laughter are shared in the lounge.

New Talent

Visiting artist, Artemis Bedros, enchants local audiences and spreads good will for R.T.C.

New Program New Facilities

(Above left) Microscope technique demands concentration as students learn to discriminate small differences among tissue cells. (Above right) "Dem Bones," purchased at the price of $3,000, demand respect and study from Linda Ramsey, Sebrina Scott, Sarah Willis and Wilton Parker. (Right) Wilton Parker shows concern about his blood pressure as Ann Arnette says, "Relax."

A.D.N. Offers New Careers

Training for New Skills

New and Renewed Leadership for a New Vision
